

How is the Learning Outcomes Framework responding to an internationalized school culture in primary schools in Malta?

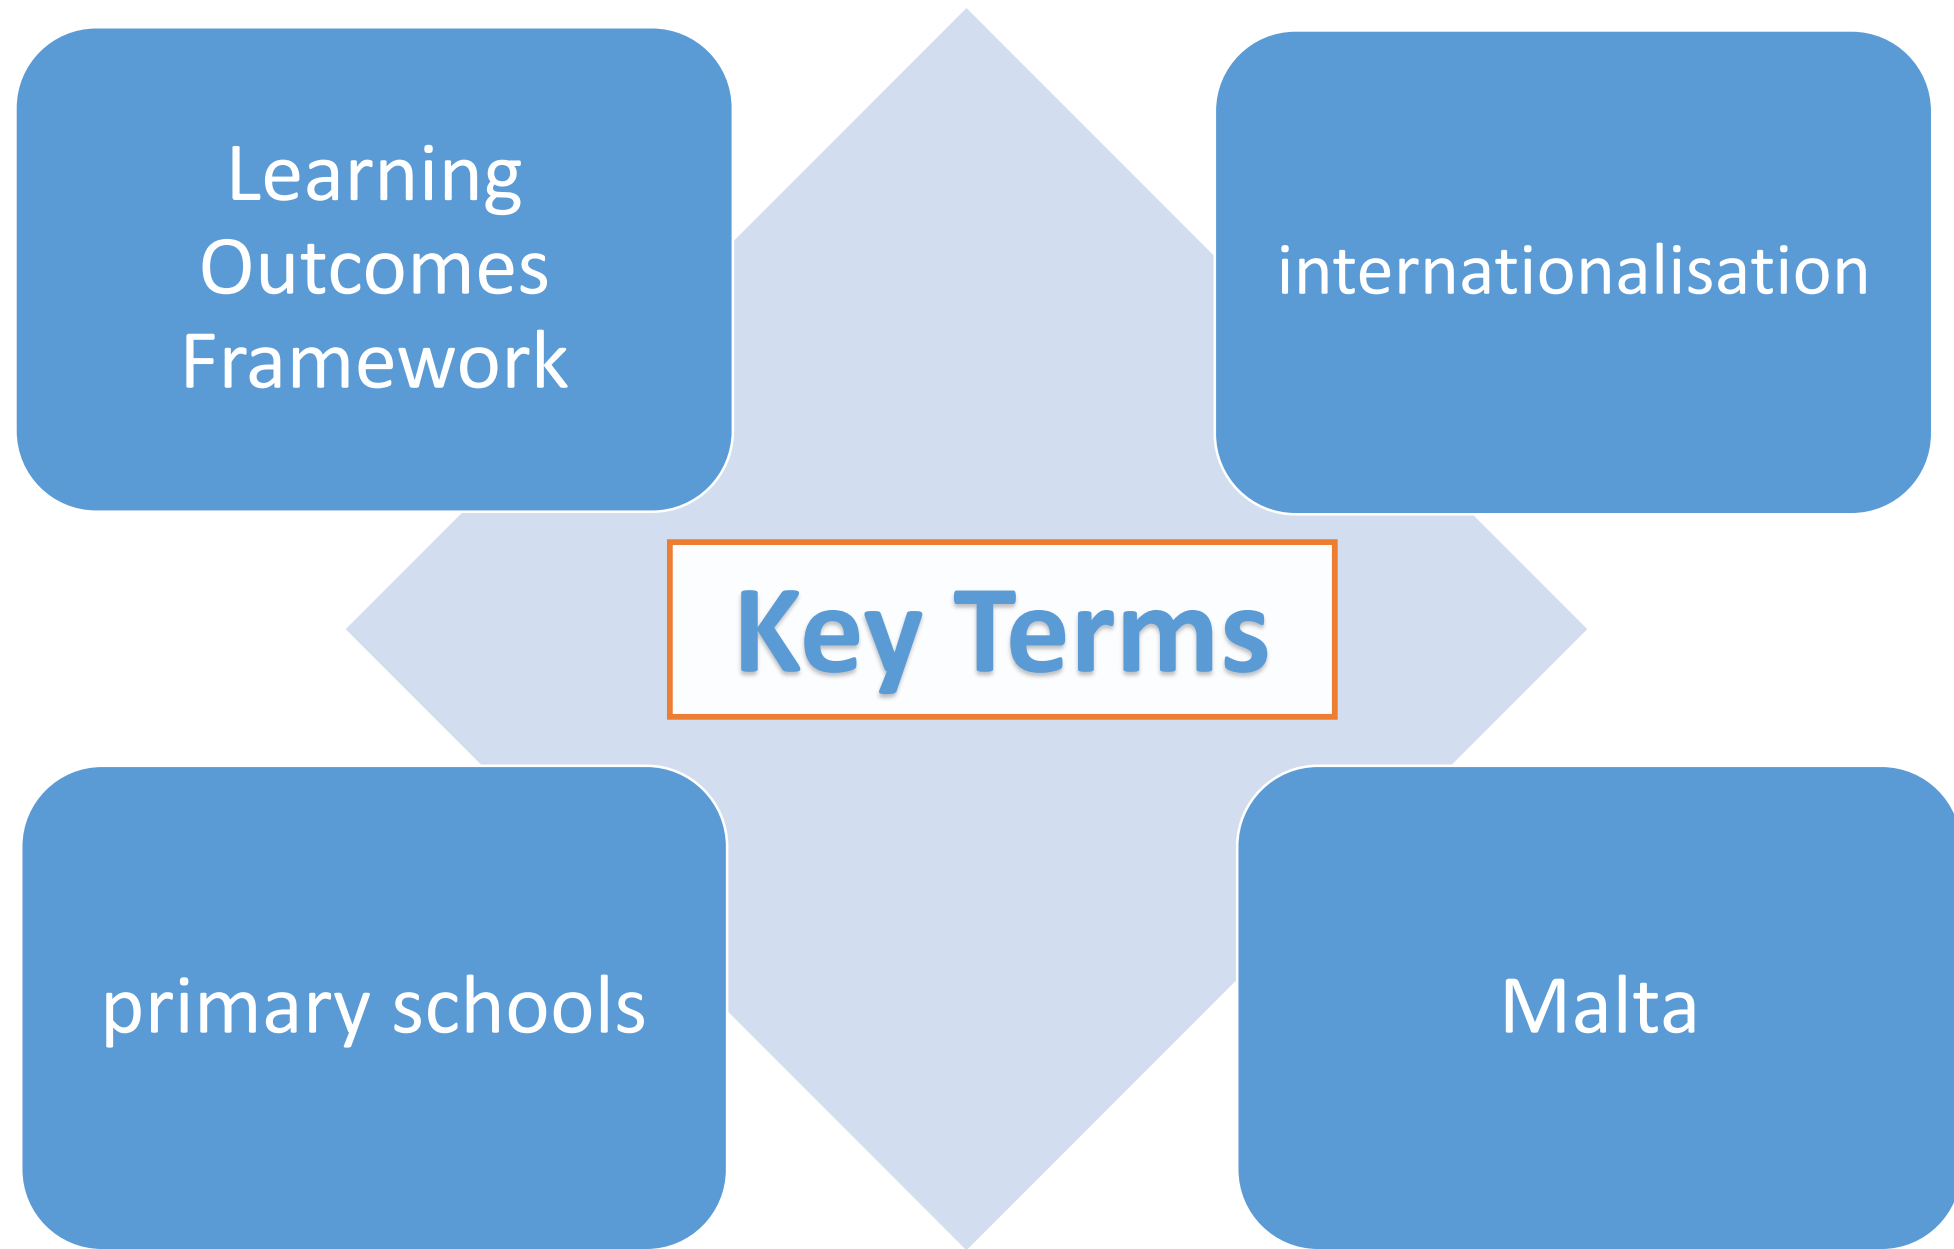

Heathcliff Schembri

Ph.D Researcher - University of East Anglia

heath.schembri@gmail.com

Positionality

Research Questions

1. What are the roots, rationale and objectives of the LOF?
2. How does the LOF compare to other OBE systems and reflect EU policies?
3. How is the LOF responding to an internationalized climate in Maltese primary schools and what is the way forward?

Curriculum

Transfer of Knowledge

Product

Process

A Transition

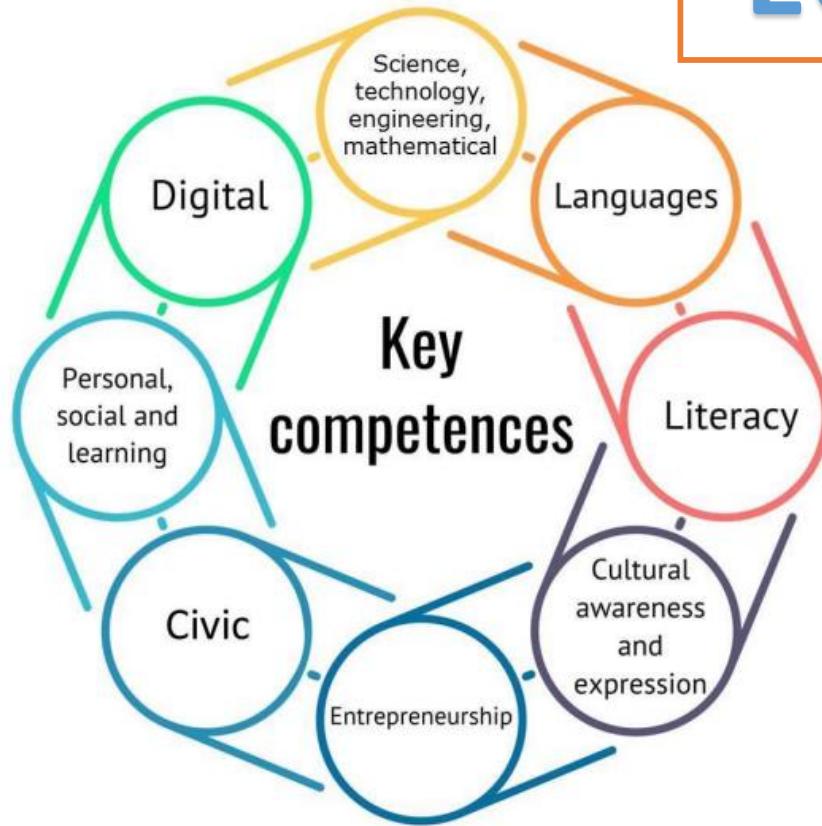

Learning Outcomes Framework

Level of Attainment	Year	Diverse Needs		School Cycle	Educational Institution		Age
1-3	Childcare Kinder 1 Kinder 2	Gifted and talented learners	Learners with Special Education Needs	Early Childhood Education	Childcare Centres		0-7
					Kindergarten School
4	1, 2				Primary School
5	3, 4
6	5, 6			Junior Years	Middle School	Secondary School	7, 8, 9
7	7, 8 (Form 1, 2)			Middle Years
8	9, 10 (Form 3, 4)			Secondary Years	Senior Secondary School	Secondary School	9, 10, 11
9	11 (Form 5)						11, 12
10		13, 14
					15, 16
					Lifelong

EU Policies

The Key Competences for Lifelong Learning -
A European Reference Framework (2006)

Europe 2020 - A strategy for smart sustainable and inclusive growth (2010)

Multicultural Reality

Scholastic Year 2017-2018

47,289 enrolled learners in compulsory education

- 58.1% state schools
- 28.7% church schools
- 13.2% independent schools

11% - learners from a migrant background:

- 3,499 EU
- 2,767 non-EU
- 7 unspecified

EU - 920 Italian, 813 British, 344 Bulgarian, 167 Romanian and 155 Swedish ...

Non-EU - 571 Libyan, 336 Serbian, 306 Syrian, 200 Russian and 116 Ukrainian ...

... to give educational entitlement to all learners in Malta ...

... to give educational entitlement to all learners in Malta ...

Student-centred?

MIGRANT LEARNERS' UNIT

A Policy on Inclusive Education in Schools

Route to Quality Inclusion

The Need for a Strategy

Heathcliff Schembri - heath.schembri@gmail.com

Curricular Alignment

A photograph of a person's legs and feet on a wooden staircase. The person is wearing green pants and brown sneakers with white soles. The stairs are made of light-colored wood with dark grey treads. The text "Initial Training" is overlaid on the image in a white box with a blue border.

Initial Training

Further Training

To conclude