

Call for Proposals

Symposium for Colleges

The Institute for Education together with the Ministry for Education, Sport, Youth, Research and Innovation will hold a Symposium for Colleges on 2 December 2022.

The Symposium is an opportunity for Senior Management Team members and Educators to present their recent research and projects, create synergies and network.

Proposals are being sought for individual or group presentations. Proposals can be submitted by an individual or small group. Accepted presentations will involve a 30-minute presentation with an additional 15 minutes allotted for questions and discussion.

Proposals should be related to research or projects carried out within Colleges currently or within the last two years.

Key dates for proposals

Proposals will be received until 16 September 2022. Accepted proposals will be informed by 7 October 2022. Please note that the information related to the accepted proposals will be made available on the Symposium website.

Submission requirements

Proposals should be submitted in the form of an abstract of not more than 150 words excluding references, which will be used to judge the merits of the proposal. The proposal should outline the issue being explored or the research / project being presented, key findings and conclusion. Proposals should also include keywords and a short biographical note of not more than 100 words of the person submitting the proposal.

Evaluation of proposals

Proposals will be evaluated in terms of their contribution to educational research, policy, and/or practice, and the quality of the presentation keeping in mind also a balanced contribution from Colleges around Malta and Gozo and giving a platform for varied research and projects in the field of education.

Please submit your proposal in English through this link.
