The Institute for Education is offering educators and parents/guardians the opportunity to join a free webinar titled, Positive Discipline and its Transformative Influence on Family Dynamics on the 29th May 2024 at 17:30-19:30.

The key speaker of this webinar will be Ms Michelle Farrugia, a Family Systemic Psychotherapist with a background in Psychology and Education. In her approach, Michelle focuses on helping families identify and address dysfunctional patterns within their familial and interpersonal dynamics by empowering them to initiate and maintain positive changes to cultivate healthier relationships.

This webinar will delve into the principles and practices of nurturing discipline that fosters growth, resilience, and healthy parent-child relationships. Discover practical techniques to promote cooperation, set boundaries with empathy, and cultivate a nurturing environment where children and adolescents thrive.

Interested applicants are kindly asked to submit an online application by following the link: WEB02/01/2024 by 20th May 2024.
